Srisasanti Gallery proudly presents Norma, Forma, a group exhibition featuring the works of 8 Indonesian artists, unveiling the tension between the persistence of norms and the necessity of its transformation. The exhibition features paintings in various mediums, inviting us to consider how artists explore the liminal spaces of social norms—reframing the familiar, rewriting the rules, and reforming how we look at and live our lives.

Norms are not neutral. Cultural, political, and historical forces or legacies shape, reinforce, and regulate them. What is considered normal in one context may be questioned or rejected in another place or society. While they can create stability, they can also stifle innovation, differences, and changes in favor of conformity and continuity. Like spirits, norms are invisible, and that is precisely where their power lies—operating unnoticed, beneath the surface.

In contemporary life, tension constantly arises between holding onto norms as we know them and breaking free from them. Social conditions, technological development, and geopolitical shifts continually expose the limitations of old structures, revealing the inadequacies of many past norms in facing today's realities. Within this dilemma, Norma, Forma invites us to reflect and challenge the invisible mechanisms of conformity and propose new forms of engagement, agency, and understanding. How are norms formed? Who has the right to enforce them?

The exhibition presents works from Indonesian artists including Agugn, Budi Agung Kuswara, Entang Wiharso, Eko Bintang, Gilang Fradika, J. Ariadhitya Pramuhendra, Lemuel E. Saputra, Riono Tanggul.

Norma, Forma opens to the public from 14 June – 10 August 2025. Exhibition hours are Monday – Friday from 12 to 7 PM and Saturday & Sunday from 12 to 8 PM at Tirtodipuran Link Building B, Yogyakarta. The exhibition catalog is printed in a limited edition and available in the gallery space.

Srisasanti Gallery

Srisasanti Gallery is an art gallery founded by E. St. Eddy Prakoso with the main goal of initiating global appreciation for Indonesian artists.

Srisasanti Gallery represents and supports its artists with a long-term perspective, dedicating its effort to developing their careers and providing a significant audience for their works, both regionally and globally. The gallery has been exhibiting established artists who have important roles in Indonesian art history, while also nurturing emerging artists to contribute to the growth of the Indonesian art scene. Apart from presenting intensive and dynamic in-house programs each year, Srisasanti Gallery also actively presents its artists at art fairs and other international programs.
